

BEACONSFIELD

a streamlined resource for the development and presentation of contemporary art

22 Newport Street Vauxhall London SE11 6AY

t. +44 (0)20 7582 6465 f. +44 (0)20 7582 6486

info@beaconsfield.ltd.uk www.beaconsfield.ltd.uk

8 Albert Embankment

PROOF OF EVIDENCE

IMPACT ON EXISTING CULTURAL ASSETS

OCTOBER 2020

Proof of evidence for A. David Crawforth BA (hons) Fine Art, RAS PG Dip Painting.

Appendix C

Lambeth Ragged School in 1995 when Beaconsfield took the lease

Southwest facing outer wall Girls wing, Lambeth Ragged School, prior to refurbishment by Beaconsfield in 1995 (from an Eastern perspective).

South facing outer wall Girls wing, Lambeth Ragged School, prior to refurbishment by Beaconsfield in 1995.

South and East facing outer walls Girls wing, Lambeth Ragged School, prior to refurbishment by Beaconsfield in 1995 (from a South Eastern perspective) showing gate into derelict corner plot due for redevelopment.

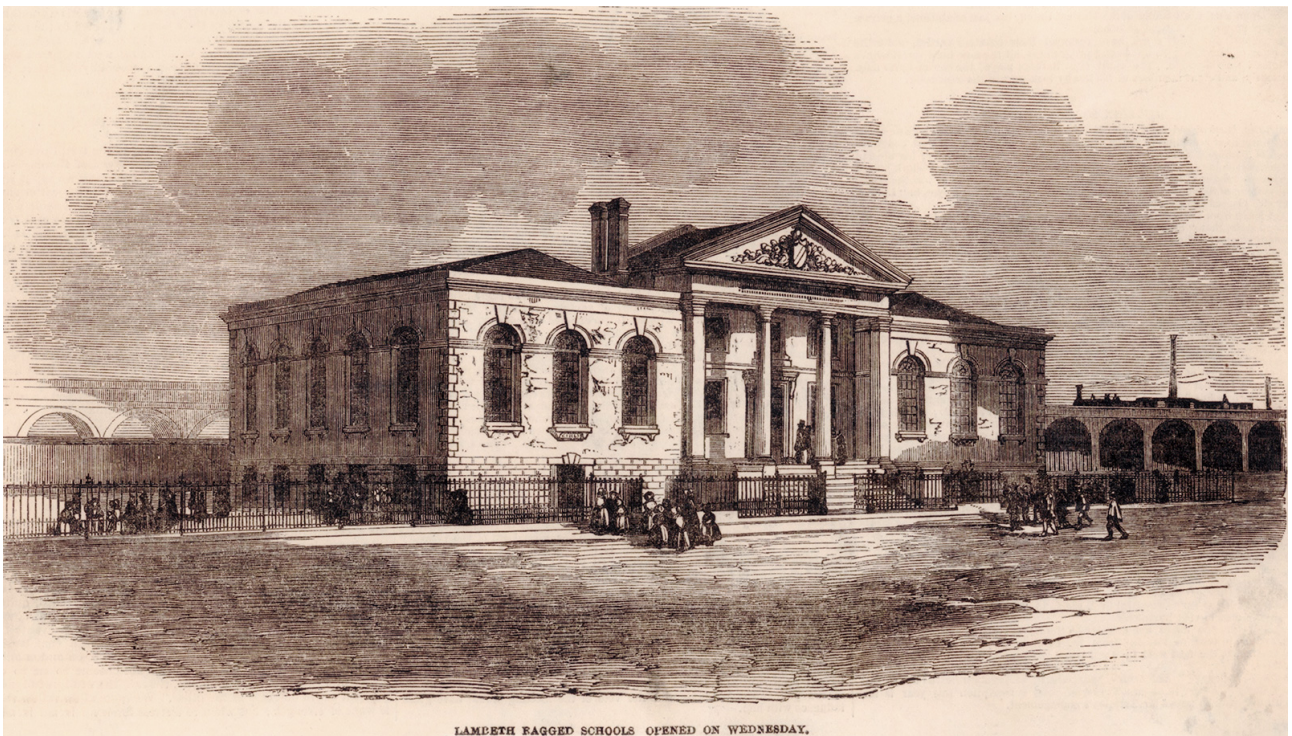

East and South facing outer walls Girls Wing, Lambeth Ragged School, 1995, prior to refurbishment by Beaconsfield (from a South Eastern perspective) showing windows into what is now Beaconsfield's Upper Gallery.

East facing outer wall and South facing outer wall Girls wing, Lambeth Ragged School, prior to refurbishment by Beaconsfield in 1995 (from a North Eastern perspective), showing The Queens Head, a contemporaneous Victorian pub of appropriate scale to the Victorian building. The proposed 11 storey tower block would sever the relationship between the two buildings and take light from both.

North facing outer wall Girls wing, Lambeth Ragged School, prior to refurbishment by Beaconsfield in 1995 showing Fire Brigade parking spaces..

LAMBETH RAGGED SCHOOLS OPENED ON WEDNESDAY.

The Lambeth Ragged School of Doughty Street (now Newport Street), Lambeth Walk.
Engraving from the Illustrated London News, 8 March 1851.
Source: landmark.lambeth.gov.uk